of Kom el Shoqafa

The Catacombs Kom el Shoqafa

Archaeologists believe that the Catacomb of Kom el Shoqafa was started in the 2nd century A.D. and was used to intern the dead for the next 200 years. This was a period in the history of the city of Alexandria when there was a great mixture of different cultures. Of course, there was the ancient history of the great Egyptian kingdoms which went back thousands of years

Pompey Pillar

Has nothing to do with Pompey. The story behind the name refers to the possible burial ground of the Roman general when he fled to Egypt and was assassinated after losing a major battle in Greece against Caesar. The red granite column was probably built to honour Emperor Diocletian. Today it stands 25 meters high and is the tallest ancient monument in Alexandria

The Citadel of Sultan Qaitbay

The Citadel was built in the 15th Century by the Mamlouk Sultan Qaitbay, To Guard the City against the threat of Crusaders, This wonderful Islamic Monument was built by the use of the ruins of the old Lighthouse that was constructed by Ptolemy 11 in 3rd Century B.c. The Lighthouse was damaged during an Earthquake that Occurred in Egypt in 1303 A.c during the reign of the Mamlouk King Qaitbay

Marsaalamtours Tours representative will pick you up from your hotel in At 8:00 am First, you will visit the Grand Egyptian

museum

The Grand Egyptian Museum , or GEM, is the largest archaeological museum in the world dedicated to a single civilization, situated just over a mile from the Pyramids of Giza.

Scale and Collection: It houses over 100,000 artifacts, including the complete collection of King Tutankhamun 's treasures—more than 5,000 pieces—displayed together for the first time since their discovery.

Design and Highlights: The stunning modern design features a massive atrium with the colossal statue of Ramses II and a grand staircase lined with statues and sarcophagi. The building's geometry and alignment visually connect it to the nearby pyramids.

Significance: It serves as Egypt's flagship cultural project, utilizing state-of-the-art conservation technology and offering an immersive, chronological journey through ancient Egyptian history from the predynastic period to the Greco-Roman era.

you will drive up to the Saladin Citadel, constructed by Salah al-Din on the Moqattam Hills in 1183 AD as a defence against Crusader armies. Known for its fresh air and sweeping views of Cairo, it is now a preserved historic site of mosques and museums, including the Mosque of Muhammad Ali Pasha Designed by the Turkish architect Yousif Boushnaq, who came to Cairo especially from Istanbul to build the great building, the mosque's alabaster structure stands in beautiful contrast to the sandstone city.

Lunch will be served in Local restaurant in Old Cairo

Then, visit Old Cairo to see major attractions such as the Hanging Church, the Ben Ezra Synagogue, the Church of St. Barbara, and the Church of Abu Serga, one of the oldest Coptic churches in Cairo

Continue to the Khan el-Khalili Bazaar, one of the oldest bazaars in the Middle East. Discover a maze of alleys that have been at the centre of Cairo's trading activities since the 14th century. Drive back to your hotel -Overnight in Giza
