4 : The Valley of the Kings
The final resting place of Egypt's rulers from the 18th to the 20th dynasty is home to tombs including the great Pharaoh Ramses II and boy Pharaoh Tutankhamun. The tombs were well stocked with all the material goods a ruler might need in the next world. Most of the decoration inside the tombs is still well preserved.

If you wish to visit the Tomb of the Young Pharaoh Tutankhamun. you can arrange it with your tour guide and pay directly on the spot.

5 : Temple of Hatshepsut

The Temple of Hatshepsut is one of the most beautiful & best preserved of all of the temples of Ancient Egypt you can find at Luxor. The temple was built on three levels with two wide ramps in a central position joining the levels together. Rising out of the desert plain, in a series of terraces, The temple of Hatshepsut Mergs with sheer limestone cliffs of the eastern face of the Theban Mountain as if Nature herself had built this extraordinary monument.

6 : The Colossi of Memnon

Colossi of Memnon, the two massive stone statues of King Amenhotep III, are the only remains of a complete mortuary temple. The statues are made from blocks of quartzite sandstone which existed in Cairo and then were moved 700 KM to Luxor, The two statues, known as the Colossi of Memnon, Rising about 18 M from the plain, are the remains of what was once the largest complex on the west bank, Built by Amenhotep the Third.
